PIRATE PAST

HISTORY OF THE PITTSBURGH BASEBALL CLUB

Professional baseball had its birth in Pittsburgh in 1876 when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies of the International Association played their first game on April 15 at Union Park. In 1882, the Alleghenies joined the American Association League, the major league rival to the National League at that time.

The Pittsburgh club applied for a franchise in the prestigious National League in 1886 and the following year played its first game on April 30 against Chicago, winning 6-2 at Recreation Park.

Most of the Alleghenies' stars jumped to the Players (Brotherhood) League in 1890 over a dispute of the low salaries. The Players' League was shortly disbanded and players were ordered to return to their original teams. Pittsburgh received its nickname at this time when the tag of "Pirates" was tied to the team for allegedly "pirating" a player from the Philadelphia club.

In 1891, the new Pittsburgh Pirates took over Exposition Park on the north side of the Allegheny River. The Pirates remained at Exposition Park until a dream was realized by owner Barney Dreyfuss who opened the gates of Forbes Field on June 30, 1909. Bill Benswanger succeeded his father-in-law, Dreyfuss, as Pirate President, upon the latter's death in 1932.

On August 8, 1946, John Galbreath, Tom Johnson and Bing Crosby purchased the club from the Benswanger family, along with Frank McKinney who later sold his interest to Galbreath and Johnson in July of 1950. The death of Bing Crosby in 1977 left Galbreath and Johnson as sole owners of the club. Dan Galbreath, currently the team President, assumed these duties on December 22, 1969.

The Galbreaths operate the John W. Galbreath Realty Company out of Columbus, Ohio, and their Darby Dan Farm has produced a number of thoroughbred horses, including two Kentucky Derby winners — Chateaugay in 1963 and Proud Clarion in 1967. Their most recent sensations have been Roberto, named after the Pirate great, and winner of the 1972 English Derby, and Little Current, winner of the 1974 Preakness and Belmont.

Tom Johnson is a noted Pittsburgh attorney who somehow survived the lean years with the Pirates and who now shares with them the pride that comes from owning a competing club.

The colorful history of Forbes Field, spanning over six decades, came to an end on June 28, 1970 and the Pirates played their first game in beautiful Three Rivers Stadium on July 16 of that year.

The Pirates were one of Major League Baseball's most competitive teams of the '70s. They amassed a 916-695 won-lost record from 1970-79 for a .569 percentage, winning six division championships, as well as two National League flags and two World Championships (1971 and 1979). They were the only National League team to finish no lower than third in a season during the '70s and that happened just once — 1973.

Joe L. Brown was General Manager of the Club in the early '70s and was the architect of the Championship franchise. In 1976, Joe retired from his front office duties and three Vice-Presidents now are responsible for the playing personnel, administration, public relations and marketing of the club — Harding Peterson, Joe O'Toole and Jack Schrom.

FRONT OFFICE PERSONNEL

Harding Peterson Executive Vice President

Harding "Pete" Peterson, a native of Fords, New Jersey and a graduate of Rutgers University, has spent over 25 years in the Pirate organization as a player, manager, Farm Director and Scouting Director. While at college, Pete led the 1950 Rutgers Baseball team to the NCAA College World Series.

Pete was signed by the Pirates after his graduation from Rutgers but his career was interrupted by the Korean War. He spent four years as a Pirate catcher until a broken arm suffered in a home plate collision hastened his retirement as a player.

He managed nine years in the Pirate farm system before moving into the front office in 1967 as Minor League Director, and he also became Scouting Director in 1968.

On October 4, 1976, he was named Vice-President/Player Personnel, then on January 18, 1979, was elevated to his present position, in which he oversees the entire Pirate organization.

It was Pete's trades in 1979 which carried the Bucs out of the classification of the contender and delivered them into the ranks of World Champions. His acquisition of Tim Foli and Bill Madlock added defense and much needed righthanded power to the Pirate line-up.

The 52-year old Peterson and his wife, Gladys, have two children, a daughter, Amy and a son, Rick, who is a coach in the Pirate farm chain. The Petersons make their home in Mt. Lebanon.

Joseph M. O'Toole Vice President/ Administration

Joe O'Toole has long been a part of the Pittsburgh sports scene.

Born in Pittsburgh on January 4, 1925, he is a graduate of Schenley High School, and served as the student manager for the football and basketball teams there. During the late 1930's, he often frequented Forbes Field as a newsboy.

O'Toole joined the Pirate organization in 1946 following four years of service in the Merchant Marine during World War II.

He served as Traveling Secretary and Business Manager for the Pirates' farm club in New Orleans from 1949 to 1952, before rejoining the parent club in the Public Relations and Promotions Department. He was named Ticket Manager in 1953 and he held that position until 1955. He became Assistant to General Manager Joe L. Brown in 1956 and served in that capacity until assuming his present post on October 4, 1976.

O'Toole was responsible for the development of Pirate City, the Bucs' million dollar 149-acre Spring Training facility in Bradenton, Florida; and he was the Pirates' co-ordinator in the design and construction of Three Rivers Stadium.

He and his wife Betty have two sons, Dennis and Gary. They reside in Westwood.

Jack Schrom — Vice President/ Public Relations and Marketing

Jack Schrom, a native of Youngstown, Ohio, joined the Pirates in 1979 as their Vice President of Public Relations and Marketing. In that capacity, Jack oversees the Pirates' Publicity, Promotions and Group and Season Ticket Sales operations.

Prior to coming to the Pirates, the 36-year old Schrom served as General Manager of Trends and Associates, a Columbus, Ohio, based advertising agency. In addition to his work with Trends and other agencies, he previously had been employed by the Xerox Corporation in Columbus.

While working in advertising, Jack served as Account Executive for Muirfield Village, site of the Jack Nicklaus Memorial Golf Tournament. He also acted as Publicity Chairman for the LPGA Borden Classic, played at Riviera Country Club in Columbus. While living in Columbus, Jack teamed with former Ohio State and NBA basketball star Bill Hosket in coordinating the successful television syndication of Ohio State University basketball setting up a six-station network that covers most of the state of Ohio and parts of neighboring states.

Jack did both undergraduate and graduate work in journalism and advertising at Ohio University from 1963 to 1969. He took courses in Sports Administration as a graduate minor.

While at Ohio U., Schrom was a member of the varsity golf team for three years and coached the freshman golf team in 1968.

Jack is single and makes his home in Mt. Lebanon, PA.

PIRATE SCOUTING ORGANIZATION

For the eighth consecutive year, the Pirates are one of the 17 participating members in the Major League Scouting Bureau, headed by Jim Wilson, former General Manager of the Milwaukee Brewers. A staff of 61 scouts in the United States will do the field work for the Pirates and the other 16 clubs. The information they gather for the semi-annual Baseball Drafts is fed into a computer in Newport Beach, California and relayed by a computer system to the member clubs. The Pirates have retained the following scouts to evaluate recommendations of the Bureau's staff:

7—TANNER, Charles William Jr. (Chuck) Mgr.

1982 Opening Day Age 52 . . . Born New Castle, PA, 7/4/29 . . . Home — New Castle, PA . . . B-L, T-L . . . 6-1, 200 . . . Played outfield . . . Married; Barbara (Babs), four children; Mark (30), Gary (27), Brent (23) and Bruce (19).

Entering his sixth year as manager of the Pirates, Chuck came into the 1982 season needing just one victory to give him 900 career wins as a major league manager. With the Pirates since 1977, Chuck has amassed a record of 411-338 (.549), including an average of 91 wins over his first four seasons with the Bucs . . . in 1979, he piloted the Bucs to their most wins since 1909, when they won 110 . . . he also became the fourth manager in Pittsburgh history to lead the Pirates to a World Championship, after 4 consecutive second-place finishes . . . His 1978 Pirates mounted an unforgettable surge on the Eastern Division leading Philadelphia Phillies, coming back from an 11½ game/fourth place deficit on 8/12 and getting as close as one game out on 9/19, before the Phils finally clinched on the season's next-to-last day in head-to-head competition with the Bucs . . . the Baseball Bulletin honored him by naming him the 1978 Manager of the Year . . . he led the 1977 Pirate club to its most wins (96) since the World Championship 1971 season . . . prior to joining the Pirate organization, he was named manager of the Oakland A's on 12/18/75 and engineered the '76 A's to a second place finish, coming within 2½ games of unseating the K.C. Royals in the A.L. West . . . he managed the Chicago White Sox from 1971-75 and was named Manager of the Year when, in 1972, the previously struggling ChiSox finished second with an 87-62 record . . . he made his managerial debut with the Quad Cities of the Midwest League in 1963; moved to El Paso (Texas League) for 1965-66, to Seattle (Pacific Coast League) in 1967; went back to El Paso in '68, where his team won the pennant; took over the Hawaii club in the PCL in 1969, and the Islanders posted a 98-48 record in 1970, the best percentage in organized baseball . . . Chuck is widely known for his ability to communicate with his players . . . he began his 34-year professional baseball career in 1946 after earning 10 letters in baseball, basketball and football at Shenango High School in New Castle, Pa. . . . originally signed by the Boston Braves, he performed well as an outfielder in the subsequent 17 years, playing in the majors with Milwaukee, Chicago (Cubs), Cleveland and Los Angeles (Angels) . . . he got his name in the record books by homering on the first pitch in his first time at bat in the big leagues (8th inning, April 12, 1955) — at that time, the second player to accomplish this feat.

Tony Bartirome Trainer

Tony is recognized as one of the top trainers in Baseball. He treats the athletes daily for a wide variety of physical ailments and works with the players on conditioning. Having played ball himself, he is able to communicate well and to identify with the players' problems. A clever, witty man, he is instrumental in keeping a relaxed atmosphere in the clubhouse.

Born in Pittsburgh on May 9, 1932, Tony has been involved in baseball for most of his life. He attended Central Catholic and Connelley Vocational High Schools, playing baseball at the latter. A first baseman, Tony was signed by the Pirates' Pie Traynor on February 8, 1951.

Tony spent one year with the Pirates, appearing in 124 games in 1952. While compiling a .220 batting average, he established a club record by not grounding into a doubleplay during the entire season.

Following a two-year tour of duty with the U.S. Army in 1953-54, Tony returned to baseball and finally ended his 11-year pro career as player-coach for the Bucs' Triple-A Columbus affiliate in 1963.

He served as trainer of the Columbus club for the next three years and has been in the same capacity with the Pirates since 1967. Tony and his wife Carol reside in Bradenton, Florida with their son Anthony (20).

John Hallahan — Equipment Manager

In terms of seniority, John Hallahan ranks high on the list in the Pittsburgh organization. Known as "Hully" to his friends, he began his career in 1941 as the visiting batboy and clubhouse helper at Forbes Field.

Born in Pittsburgh on July 5, 1927, Hully attended Taylor Allderdice High School where he played basketball. After two years in the Army (1946-48), he became the assistant in the Pirate clubhouse.

In 1957, he was named the head equipment manager of the Pirates and has ably served in that post for the past 24 years. Responsible for creating a pleasant clubhouse atmosphere for the players and visitors, Hully also handles the ordering and care of the entire uniform and all the baseball equipment.

When the team travels, Hully is not only responsible for equipment, but also all the personal luggage. Usually faced with a tight schedule in moving from airports to hotels and clubhouses, John nevertheless runs a smooth operation. Hully and his wife Betty make their home in nearby Penn Hills and have five children, Ginny (30), Tom (29), Roberta (23), Gary (20) and Stephen (18).

The Broadcast Team

Lanny Frattare

Lanny is the veteran on the Pirate broadcasting team.

KDKA NINETY-TO-SIX sports editor and play-by-play voice of Ohio State basketball in the off-season, Frattare joined the family in 1976 after having spent two years ('74-'75) as the Charleston Charlies (then the Pirates' Class AAA farm team) number one announcer. During that same period, he was also the Voice of the Rochester Americans Hockey Team, an affiliate of the Boston Bruins.

From 1968 through 1974, he served as Sports Director of WBBF Radio in Rochester, New York. During the 1974-75 season, he served as play-by-play announcer for a TV station in Rochester, for which he covered both college and high school basketball and football. In 1970 he did play-by-play telecasts of some of the Rochester Red Wings (Class AAA International League) baseball games, and in 1968, served as the play-by-play announcer for the Geneva (NY) Senators in the Class A New York-Pennsylvania League.

Born on March 23, 1948 in Rochester, New York, Frattare received his Bachelor of Science degree in Communications in 1970 from Ithaca College. Extremely civic minded and a board member of the South Hills Child Guidance Center, he and his wife, Liz, have one son, David, and reside in the Bethel Park region of Pittsburgh.

Jim Rooker

Jim Rooker, a veteran of 103 major league victories, including 82 as a Pirate, is entering his second year as a member of the Pirates' Radio/TV broadcast team.

A native of Lakeview, Oregon, Jim began his major league career with the Detroit Tigers in 1968 and moved on to the Kansas City Royals in 1969. He remained with the Royals until October 25, 1972, when he was acquired by the Pirates. In his first five years with the Bucs, "Rook" averaged over 13 wins a season.

Jim will best be remembered as the Pirates' starting pitcher in crucial Game Five of the 1979 World Series against the Baltimore Orioles. In that game, Rooker allowed only one run over five innings while battling the O's ace lefthander Mike Flanagan to a standoff before the Bucs came back to win.

Rooker spent five months on the disabled list in 1980 before announcing his retirement at season's end.

Born September 23, 1942, Rooker and his wife Betty reside in Library, PA. The Rookers have three children; David (21), Stephanie (18) and Jaime (3).

John Sanders

John Sanders, KDKA-TV Sports Director, was added to the Pirate broadcast family on October 15, 1980 following the tremendous positive reaction he received while filling in for an ailing Lanny Frattare during two telecasts in late May.

Sanders functions as the team's play-by-play announcer on Pirate telecasts. Well known in the Pittsburgh area for his excellent coverage of sporting events, Sanders joined the KDKA-TV Eyewitness News staff in February of 1978 as a Weekend Sports Anchorman. Prior to KDKA, Sanders was employed for 12 years at KMBC-TV in Kansas City, Missouri, where in 1974 and 1976 he was awarded the Missouri Broadcasting Association Sports Reporting Award.

While at KMBC, he held several positions including weather announcer, weekend sports reporter and news anchorman. He also announced pre-season play-by-play for the Kansas City Chiefs Football Team.

John and his wife Cherie reside in Mt. Lebanon, PA and have two daughters — Gabrielle (12) and Hilary (8).

29—RHODEN, Richard Allen (Rick) RHP

1982 Opening Day Age 28 . . . Born Boynton Beach, FL, 5/16/53 . . . Home — Woodland Hills, CA . . . B-R, T-R . . . 6-3, 195 . . . Married; Leslie, one child; Tanner (1).

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from Los Angeles, 4/8/79, in exchange for Jerry Reuss.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 6 years, 147 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed thru 1984.

1981 SEASON: Was one of baseball's hottest pitchers during the first half of the season, registering a 6-0 record in his first 10 starts . . . Included in his hot streak was a 3-0 record in four April starts . . . The 3-0 mark gives him a lifetime April record of 13-0 (21 games, 18 starts) in the major leagues (L.A. and the Pirates) . . . Picked up his third win with a nine-hit shutout over the Mets @Shea on 4/28 . . . His other shutout came in his final appearance, vs. Chi. on 9/28 . . . Tied for 10th in the N.L. in shutouts . . . Led all Buc pitchers in wins, starts, complete games, shutouts, innings pitched and strikeouts . . . First loss came on 6/9 when he was defeated by S.D. . . . Pitched in nine one-run games and was 4-1 in those contests . . . Despite the abbreviated season, his statistics were his best since 1978 . . . Missed last start with injured right knee.

Career: Made only one appearance in 1979 before undergoing surgery for removal of bone chips in his right shoulder . . . Rebounded in 1980 while pitching at Portland . . . Tossed a no-hitter for the Beavers on 4/23 and was 6-3 before being recalled by the Bucs on 6/10 . . . Lost first three starts with the Bucs in '80 before picking up first Pirate win on 7/18 when he defeated his former L.A. teammates . . . In 1978, jumped off to a fast start with the Dodgers, winning his first four games (3 CG) but developed arm troubles and was sent to the bullpen in August . . . Won his first five decisions and 10 of his first 13 in 1977 . . . Was a member of the 1976 All-Star team, finishing 11th in the N.L. in ERA.

Personal/Misc.: Was an outstanding baseball and basketball star at Seacrest and Atlantic High Schools in Boynton Beach, FL . . . Was a victim of Osteomyelitis as a youngster . . . At age eight, he was hurt while playing on a 40-foot strip of plastic, hosed down with water, upon which youngsters slide for distance . . . His knee was severely cut by a pair of rusty scissors wedged in the grass under the water slide . . . Two months later he was struck with the initial fever of Osteomyelitis . . . Was forced to wear a brace until he was 12, and later had to walk with the aid of a cane . . . Underwent surgery to remove part of his left knee so that his left leg would not outgrow his right . . . Is an avid golfer.

1981 SEASON: Tied with Bibby for lowest ERA (2.49) and led Bucs in appearances and games finished (27) . . . Started slowly, going 0-3 with no saves over first 12 appearances. His initial three losses extended his consecutive losing decisions streak to 10; he lost his last seven decisions of 1980 (8/26-10/4) . . . Snapped losing streak by pitching two scoreless innings to defeat the Cubs on 5/26 . . . Picked up another win on 6/4 vs. Chi. and recorded his first save on 6/6 vs. S.F. . . . Allowed only three earned runs in 10 appearances (13.1 IP) from 5/11 thru 8/10 (first 2nd half appearance)for an ERA over that span of 2.08. His season ERA dropped during that stretch from 7.88 to 4.09 . . . Success continued during the second half, as he allowed only eight second-half earned runs in 28 appearances (43 IP) for an ERA of 1.67 . . . Gave up a home run to Schmidt @ Phila. on 9/20; the only homer he allowed in 45 appearances on the season . . . Moved ahead of Wilbur Cooper and into fifth place on the Bucs' all-time games pitched list when he made his 470th career appearance on 8/24, and then went in front of both Vernon Law and Babe Adams into third place when he made his 484th career appearance on 10/2. His 486 games rank behind Elroy Face (802) and Bob Friend (568) on the Bucs' all-time list.

Career: Led the Pirates in saves, appearances and games finished in 1980 for the third straight year . . . His 21 saves and 78 appearances in '80 ranked sixth and second (tie), respectively, in the N.L. . . . Tied a major league record for a relief pitcher by winning three games in three consecutive appearances between 5/6 and 5/9 . . . Lost last seven appearances of '80, between 8/26 and 10/4 . . . In 1979, led the N.L. in appearances and games finished, while finishing second in saves and fourth in the balloting for the Cy Young Award . . . Broke his own record for appearances in a season and tied his club saves record in 1979; his 31 saves in '78 edged him past Dave Giusti (30) for the club mark for most saves in a season . . . Was second on the Pirates in ERA in '78 . . . Earned saves in both ends of a twin bill twice in '79 . . . Saved World Series Games 2, 6 and 7 . . . In '78, was edged out by one point by Rollie Fingers for the N.L. Rolaids Relief Man Award . . . Led the league with 65 games finished in '78, and was named N.L. Pitcher of the Month for August, 1978 . . . Broke the Pirate record of 71 games pitched set in 1966 by Pete Mikkelsen, when he appeared in 72 in 1977 . . . Joined the Pirates from Charleston on 6/26/75 and picked up first major league save on 6/30 vs. Mtl. . . . First big league win came on 9/2/75 vs. NY . . . In 1973, led the Eastern League in appearances and tied for the lead in wins.
